HOTEL

Welcome

Relaxed, elegant and beautifully refurbished, The Orchid Hotel is one of those hidden gems that once found, will never be forgotten. Situated ten minutes walk away from Bournemouth town centre and the beaches, yet in a peaceful residential area, you couldn't ask for a better location.

Our 31 bedroom boutique hotel was refurbished in 2017 to a modern and contemporary style with a uniquely relaxed and informal vibe.

As soon as you walk through the door you are welcomed into our oasis by friendly and helpful staff whose one concern is to make sure you have an enjoyable stay.

With two beautiful and newly refurbished function rooms, one of which leads into our pretty courtyard, the hotel is perfect for all types of event, especially weddings. It's also ideal for meetings, private dinners, company incentives and anniversaries, to name but a few. Together with contemporary dining from executive chef Jose Bandarras and his talented team at No 34, our AA Rosette restaurant, you're guaranteed to feel spoilt and pampered at The Orchid Hotel and won't want to check out!

Come and experience The Orchid's hospitality and charm by calling our events team and reservations on 01202 551600.

Relax

Chill out in one of our beautifully refurbished bedrooms. Kick off your shoes, lie back on your deliciously comfortable king sized bed and luxuriate in the feeling as body and soul relax...

Complete with designer en-suite bathroom (complimentary toiletries included), flat screen TV and a work station big enough to actually work at, all 31 contemporary styled rooms have been thoughtfully laid out and elegantly appointed.

So whether you're catching up on some R&R or reviewing the P&L, you can be sure of the peace and quiet you crave. And, with super-fast complimentary wifi throughout the hotel, you'll also be better connected throughout your stay.

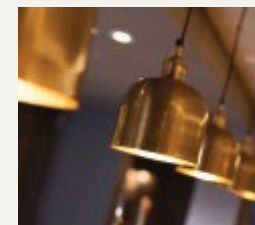

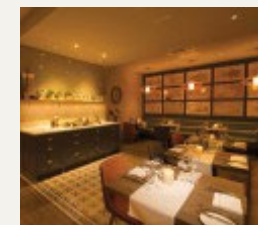

No. 34

Dine

Seating up to 40 diners in sophisticated but unfussy comfort, the vibe is laid-back and effortlessly informal. Open seven days a week for dinner from 6.00 to 9.30, it's all about taking your time to savour the simple joys of AA rosette food from Head Chef Jose Bandarra and his talented team.

Relax over a pre- or post-prandial glass or two the chilled ambience of the adjoining lobby lounge, where you can also enjoy a treat from our new bar snacks menu or a classic afternoon tea. Sensibly priced, elegantly informal and fabulously full flavoured, No. 34 puts great food back where it belongs – front and centre stage.

Wedding

Small but perfectly formed, the newly refurbished Orchid is an enchanting venue for a wedding that's as unique as you are. With a civil ceremony license and a choice of settings for your celebrations – from our idyllic courtyard to two completely redesigned function rooms – the Orchid offers an intimately glamorous backdrop for a truly unforgettable day.

Just as important, every aspect of your special day is tailor-made – from the menu and the styling through to the tiniest of details. Our hugely experienced team are on hand to make your dream wedding a reality, with countless magical little extras to inspire and excite in equal measure.

For details, contact us on 01202 551600.

Conferences

With two newly refurbished function suites – one with its own bar – and an open plan reception lounge space ideal for breakouts and smaller informal meetings, The Orchid is the ideal self-contained setting for conferences and events of all sizes.

As a business venue, the hotel is perfectly placed. Just five minutes from Bournemouth Rail and Coach Interchange and less than fifteen from Bournemouth International Airport, The Orchid is also centrally located close to the town centre and Bournemouth International Centre.

Moreover, with over a decade's experience of hosting business functions and conferences, our team are well-versed in every aspect of ensuring that your event runs smoothly – from initial booking and planning through to welcoming your delegates and making them comfortable and able to work to their full potential throughout their stay with us.

Incentives

Being so close to the sea, you can really wow and motivate your employees by coming to Bournemouth for a teambuilding event. Sailing days, RIB boat hire, kayaking and many more wave-based activities are something different to offer that will be thoroughly enjoyed by all.

For the land lovers we can also recommend many teambuilding activities in an area that will both excite and exhilarate your employees, from Land Rover driving and quad bikes to zip wire, inflatable sports aqua park and more. With some of the most beautiful coastlines and beaches in Britain, you can really show your staff just how much they mean to you.

Attractions

If you're just looking for a good old fashioned beach holiday, Bournemouth stills delivers in buckets and spades. But if you're looking for more, you won't be disappointed...

As a resort, Bournemouth is bursting at the seams with attractions for all ages. Have a go at a new sport or activity at the Coastal Activity Park, just minutes along the coast at Boscombe; enjoy Premier League football at AFC Bournemouth's Goldsands Stadium; or take in the town's rich and diverse cultural heritage, with museums, galleries and an abundance of historical interest.

The acclaimed Russell-Cotes Art Gallery and Museum is just minutes away on the East Cliff, whilst the Pier Approach has just undergone a £4million facelift, creating a fabulous family focal point between the gardens and beaches.
